

Children and Young Persons Protection Statement

Responsibilities

City Of Edinburgh Trampoline Club will:

- Promote the health and welfare of children and young people by providing opportunities for them to get started into trampolining, stay active and reach their desired level of ability, in a fun, safe and friendly environment.
- Respect and promote the rights, wishes and feelings of children and young people.
- Promote and implement appropriate procedures to safeguard the well-being of children and young people and protect them from abuse.
- Train and support its members to adopt best practice to safeguard and protect children and young people from abuse and to minimise risk to themselves.
- Require members to adopt and abide by this children and young persons policy and procedures.
- Respond to any allegations of misconduct or abuse to children in line with this policy.

Principles

Children and young people have a lot to gain from an involvement with the sport of trampolining and City of Edinburgh Trampoline Club strives to provide an opportunity for them to learn new skills, become more confident and maximise their own unique potential based on the following principles:

- The welfare and enjoyment of children and young people is of primary concern.
- All Children and Young People, whatever their age, ability, culture, gender, language, racial origin, socio-economic status, religious belief have the right to access trampolining coaching within City of Edinburgh Trampoline Club.
- City of Edinburgh Trampoline Club coaches and volunteers will abide by all guidelines and good practice recommended by City of Edinburgh Trampoline Club and its governing body, Scottish Gymnastics.
