

COACH PROFILE

Name: Emily Roxbee Cox

Occupation: Marketing and Events Manager, University of Edinburgh Sport

Place of Birth: Ascot

Living in: Edinburgh

Trampoline Experience: 20 years as a Gymnast, 10 years as a Club Judge

Coaching Qualifications: TRA Level 1, SG Wellbeing & Protection 1

Emily has been involved in trampolining for over 20 years, having started the sport at just six years old. She joined CETC in 2024, training in the adult class and supporting as a judge at competitions. Over the years, she has competed for several clubs, beginning at Edgebarrow and later representing Orbit TC and Birkenhead TC.

She has taken part in competitions at various levels, with highlights including becoming English North West Champion in 2018, winning gold at a League 2 Women's qualifier in 2016, finishing 3rd in Synchro at the League National Finals in 2017. In her first year with CETC, Emily was proud to be named Judge of the Year at the Club Championships and also became the 2024 Club Form Champion.

Emily studied Sport & Exercise Science at Liverpool John Moores University, where she served as President of the university trampolining club. She enjoys staying involved in the sport through judging, training, and is excited to step into a coaching role within CETC.

(Updated 2025)